

GREYLOCK CAPITAL MANAGEMENT ANNOUNCES MANAGEMENT CHANGES

NEW YORK – 19 October 2012 – Greylock Capital Management, LLC (“Greylock Capital”) announced today a series of management changes. Hans Humes will remain as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and becomes Co-President and Co-Chief Investment Officer of Greylock Capital; Ajata Mediratta has been named Co-President and Diego Ferro becomes Co-Chief Investment Officer. Greylock Capital, an alternative asset manager, focuses on emerging markets in Africa, Asia, Eastern Europe, Latin America, the Middle East and Peripheral Europe.

Hans Humes commented that “With recent mandates and our performance for the current year our regulatory assets under management now exceed $500 million. I believe that the appointments recognize the talents of AJ and Diego and expand and formalize the responsibilities of the partners across the firm.”

About Greylock Capital Management

Greylock Capital has managed emerging market portfolios since 1997. Greylock Capital specializes in event-driven, absolute return strategies in emerging markets, investing in deep value, distressed and niche assets worldwide with particular emphasis on Africa, Asia, Eastern Europe, Latin America, the Middle East and Peripheral Europe. Greylock Capital seeks to identify under-analyzed and inefficient markets, and extracts value through strategies built on years of international restructuring experience and on the-ground investment analysis. Greylock Capital does not employ leverage, has low turnover in portfolio assets and offers complete transparency to its investor base, which includes sovereign funds, pension funds, endowments and foundations, funds of funds and high net worth individuals.
